Right now, I'm earning my management degree. My college comes to me.

If you always wanted to earn your college degree but felt you didn't have time to go to school, there is a solution – Thomas Edison State College.

At Thomas Edison State College, we offer flexible, high-quality educational programs for adults. You can earn your degree through a variety of academic methods, on your terms. Plus, we'll assess the credits you may have already earned as well as evaluate the knowledge you've gained at work. And, with the help of our outstanding academic advisors, you can develop the degree completion plan that's best for you.

Thomas Edison State College offers 15 Associate, Baccalaureate and Master's degree programs. Our students come from every state in the United States and from 74 countries around the world.

Manage your time well.
